BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS

PREAMBLE

The Institute is a duly incorporated organization which acts as the bargaining agent for professional employees. Members, as a whole, are the supreme power in the Institute. Elected representatives implement the wishes of the members, as expressed at General Meetings of the Institute.

Under the authority of the pertinent labour legislation, the primary functions of the Institute are collective negotiations, individual representational services and consultation with the employers of the members.

The control of the Institute is in the hands of members through a directly-elected President, Executive Committee and Board of Directors who implement policy and manage operations between General Meetings of the Institute.

4.2.4 Ontario Region - The Province of Ontario except for those locations, including the area encompassing Atomic Energy Canada Limited at Chalk River and Petawawa, that are deemed to be part of the National Capital Region. AGM 2006 (e)

4.2.5 Prairie/Northwest Territories Region - The Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, the Northwest Territories and that portion of Nunavut west of 80° west longitude. AGM 2004 (e)

4.2.6 British Columbia/Yukon Territory Region - the Province of British Columbia and the Yukon Territory.

4.3 Change in Boundaries When recommended by the Region or Regions concerned, changes in the boundaries of any Region shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority decision of the Board.

4.4 Members Employed or Resident Outside Canada Regular members employed outside/Canada shall be considered to be employed in the National Capital Region for the purposes of these By-Laws. Retired members residing outside Canada shall be considered to be residing in the National Capital Region for the purposes of these By-Laws.

4.5 Regional Affiliation of Members A Member may be allowed to choose to be active in the region in which he resides or in the region in which he works or last worked, if retired. Any additional costs for a Member choosing to be active in a region where he does not reside will be borne by the Member. AGM 2015

BY-LAW 5 ELIGIBILITY FOR MEMBERSHIP

5.1 Qualifications - To be eligible for membership, a person is required to occupy a position in a Canadian public service or equivalent Canadian employment, where such employment is in a professional capacity or in the direction or administration of professional work, and to satisfy one (1) of the following qualifications:

- a) is engaged in the application of specialized knowledge ordinarily acquired by a course of instruction and study resulting in graduation from a university or similar institution;
- b) membership in the corporate body of a profession;
- c) qualifications equivalent to the above, or
- d) occupy any position which falls within a bargaining unit defined by the applicable legislation when the Board is satisfied that such bargaining unit is professional in character.

5.2 Groups of Employees Notwithstanding By-Law 5.1, the Board may declare any group of employees who are eligible for inclusion in a bargaining unit, as defined in legislation applicable to such group, to be eligible for membership, provided that the Board has considered the effect of such a declaration on the nature, structure and operational effectiveness of the Institute. AGM 2001 (e)

5.3 Payment of Fees / Application Forms Membership is contingent upon the payment of the prescribed fee and submission to the National Office of such membership application forms as the Board may, from time to time, approve.

5.4 Resignation from Institute Members may withdraw from the Institute by submitting a resignation, in writing, to the National Office.

BY-LAW 6 CATEGORIES OF MEMBERSHIP

6.1 Categories A member may only retain one (1) of the following categories of membership:

6.1.1 Regular Member Any person who belongs to a bargaining unit for which the Institute is certified as bargaining agent, and who has made application and has been accepted for Institute membership, shall be termed a "Regular member".

6.2 Other Categories Any Regular member who becomes ineligible to belong to an Institute bargaining unit shall be eligible for one (1) of the following categories of membership provided they make application within ninety (90) days of becoming aware of ceasing to be a Regular member:

6.2.1 Retired Member A current or former Regular member shall be eligible to become a retired member under one of the following circumstances:

- a) A current Regular member in good standing who superannuates.
- b) A former Regular member who superannuates while the Institute represents his or her current or former bargaining unit or starts to receive a pension which they had previously deferred upon retirement. Application is subject to the approval of the Board. AGM 2008 (e)

6.2.1.1 A current or former member can apply only once under this article. AGM 2007 (e)

6.2.2 Affiliate Member A member who, in addition to becoming ineligible to belong to an Institute bargaining unit, does not retain a classification otherwise represented by the Institute.

BY-LAW 7 RIGHTS OF MEMBERSHIP

Subject to being members in good standing:

7.1 Regular and Retired Members Only Regular and Retired members have the right to be candidates for office, to vote for officers, to otherwise participate in the affairs of the Institute, and, subject to By-Law 7.1.1, the affairs of the constituent bodies of the Institute. Only Regular and Retired members shall be eligible to attend General Meetings of the Institute. Only Regular members shall be eligible for appointment as Stewards.

7.1.1 Groups and Sub-Groups may, in accordance with their Constitutions, determine the level of participation of Retired members in their affairs.

7.1.2 Retired members who ceased to be Regular members during the retroactive period of a collective agreement may be granted the right to vote on that tentative agreement that affects them, unless otherwise precluded by the applicable legislation.

7.1.3 Regular and Retired members have a right to be fully informed of all actions and subjects of Institute concern and to be given full disclosure as expeditiously as possible of such information by news release or as a reply to the written request of a member.

7.1.3.1 Personal information about identified individuals and proceedings of Closed Session meetings convened by the Board, the Executive Committee or by any constituent body or its Executive shall not be so disclosed. AGM 2005 (e)

7.1.4 Members not in good standing shall not be eligible to hold Institute office at any level, to vote in any and all Institute elections, to ratify Group tentative agreements, or to participate in Institute training.

7.2 Affiliate Members Affiliate members shall not be eligible to be candidates for office, to vote for officers or to otherwise participate in the affairs of the Institute or those of its constituent bodies, nor to receive representational services. They shall be entitled to receive general Institute publications and be eligible to participate in various benefit plans available to Institute members.

7.3 Evaluation Report by President At least four (4) weeks before the Annual General Meeting, all members shall be provided with a written evaluation by the President of the effectiveness of the Institute in meeting the objectives in By-Law 2.

BY-LAW 8 MEMBERSHIP REGISTER AND NOTICES

8.1 A register shall be kept of all members with their addresses and any other pertinent information. It shall be the duty of the member to notify the Institute, in writing, of any change in address and the address shown on the register shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be the correct address of the member.

8.2 Any notice or letter relating to any matter concerning the Institute or a member thereof sent by ordinary or registered mail to a member at the address shown on the register shall be deemed to have been properly sent and to have been received by such member in due course.

BY-LAW 9 ASSOCIATION WITH EXTERNAL ORGANIZATIONS

9.1 The Institute may become associated with any federation or organization or group of organizations that may enhance the interests of members in the attainment of their professional and bargaining goals. If such association could potentially result in the loss of Institute identity or status, such association must be approved by a General Meeting before becoming effective.

BY-LAW 10 GROUPS, SUB-GROUPS, ADVISORY COUNCIL AND RETIRED MEMBERS GUILD AGM 2005 (e)

10.1 GROUPS

10.1.1 One or more bargaining units for which the Institute is a certified bargaining agent shall constitute a Group. The Group definition shall be determined by the Board of Directors but shall not include bargaining units certified under different labour statutes. The Group shall be comprised of those Regular members of the Institute within those bargaining units, and subject to By-Law 7.1.1, may include retired members. AGM 2002 (e)

10.1.2 Upon certification of a new bargaining unit, the Board of Directors shall either allocate the bargaining unit to a Group in accordance with existing group definitions or determine the new bargaining unit constitutes a new Group. AGM 2002 (e)

10.1.3 Upon request of an existing Group, the Board of Directors shall consider redefining a Group to include a different configuration of bargaining units. AGM 2002 (e)

10.1.4 Constitution Each Group shall be governed by a Constitution consistent with these By-Laws and Regulations, providing as a minimum, the right of each member to be candidates for and vote for the election of Group Executive members. Each Group shall, upon amendment of its Constitution, submit it to the By-Laws and Policies Committee for review. Any amendments to the Constitution shall take effect only upon approval by the Board and ratification by the Group membership.

10.1.5 Group Executive The minimum size of a Group Executive is three (3). The maximum number of Group Executive members shall be based on the size of the Group in accordance with the following table.

Group Size	Maximum Number of Executive Members
Less than 36	3
36 to 45	4
46 to 55	5
56 to 65	6
66 to 500	7

501 to 1000	9
1001 to 2000	11
Over 2000	13

Notwithstanding the above table, when a Group of over 2000 members represents nine or more classifications, the Group will be allowed up to fifteen (15) executive members. AGM 2009 (e)

Officers shall normally comprise a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary-Treasurer or, alternatively, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The term of office of an executive member shall not exceed three (3) years. A Group Executive may include Regional Representation when and as appropriate. The results of Group elections, listing the names, positions, addresses and home and office telephone numbers, shall be forwarded forthwith to the Executive Secretary. AGM 2008 (e)

10.1.5.1 Executive meetings shall be held in accordance with the Group By-Laws and PIPSC policies. Upon request of the Group, the Group's assigned negotiator shall attend these meetings. AGM 2012 (e)

10.1.5.2 A Group may, with the approval of the Board, be exempted from meeting requirements for Group Executives, as set out in these By-Laws, for a period not to exceed two (2) years. The Board may periodically renew this exemption. AGM 2005 (e)

10.1.6 Annual General Meeting Each Group shall convene an Annual General Meeting at least once each calendar year and, in any event, not more than fifteen (15) months from the preceding Annual General Meeting. Delegates to Group General Meetings shall be selected or elected in accordance with the individual Group Constitutions. When a Group fails to hold an Annual General Meeting, the Executive Secretary shall inform the Group that it is in contravention of this By-Law, and shall request that the Group take action within thirty (30) days of receipt of such advice. Failure to act on this advice shall result in referral of the matter to the Board.

10.1.7 Newly Formed Group When a Group joins the Institute, the Board may, at its discretion, grant to the Group's members during their first twelve (12) months with the Institute, representation and voting rights at General Meetings of the Institute and its constituent bodies. Representation shall not exceed that to which the members would have been entitled had the Institute been their bargaining agent as of the previous May 31. A newly formed Group shall be governed by a Constitution as provided for in these By-Laws. AGM 1997 (e)

10.1.8 Holding Group The Board may establish a Holding Group consisting of employees who are not in bargaining units represented by the Institute. Such employees who have made application and paid the appropriate fee in accordance with the applicable Labour Board shall be known as "Holding Members", and shall remain in the Holding Group until final arrangements are made for their incorporation into the Institute.

10.2 SUB-GROUPS

10.2.1 Creation The creation of a Sub-Group, comprising five (5) or more members of a specific Group in a geographic area, is subject to the approval of the Executive Committee upon application by the members of the proposed Sub-Group and recommendation of the Group Executive concerned. The appropriate Constitution shall be assigned to a newly created Sub-Group as provided for in these By-Laws. AGM 1997 (e)

10.2.1.1 No member shall belong to more than one (1) Sub-Group.

10.2.2 Constitution Each Sub-Group shall be governed by a Constitution, consistent with these By-Laws and those of the appropriate Group, providing as a minimum, the right of each member to be a candidate and to vote for the election of Sub-Group Executive members. Each Sub-Group shall, upon amendment of its Constitution, submit it to the By-Laws and Policies Committee and the appropriate Group Executive for review. Any amendments to the Constitution take effect only upon approval by the Board and ratification by the Sub-Group membership.

10.2.3 Sub-Group Executive A Sub-Group Executive shall normally comprise up to one (1) member per ten (10) members of the Sub-Group rounded to the nearest ten (10), with a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of eleven (11). Officers shall normally comprise a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary-Treasurer or, alternatively, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The term of office of an Executive member shall not exceed three (3) years. The results of Sub-Group elections, listing the names, positions, addresses and home and office telephone numbers, shall be forwarded forthwith to the Executive Secretary.

AGM 2008 (e)

10.2.4 Annual General Meeting Each Sub-Group shall convene an Annual General Meeting at least once each calendar year and, in any event, not more than fifteen (15) months from the preceding Annual General Meeting. When a Sub-Group fails to hold an Annual General Meeting, the Executive Secretary shall inform the Sub-Group that it is in contravention of this By-Law, and shall request the Sub-Group to take action within thirty (30) days of receipt of such advice. Failure to act on this advice shall result in referral of the matter to the appropriate Group for recommendation to the Board.

10.2.5 Cause for Dissolution A Sub-Group may be dissolved for failure to comply with its own Constitution, that of the Group or the By-Laws and Regulations of the Institute, subject to the recommendation of the appropriate Group Executive and approval by the Executive Committee.

10.3 Ratification Process for Group Collective Agreements

10.3.1 Representatives or agents empowered by the Board may enter into agreements or contracts on behalf of the Institute subject to one (1) of the following ratification processes:

10.3.1.1 Groups not in Joint Bargaining

10.3.1.1.1 For Groups not in joint bargaining which do not require that the ratification be authorized by the membership before Executive approval can be given, the Board shall ratify the tentative agreement after the Group Executive concerned has so recommended.

10.3.1.1.2 In the event of a disagreement between the Group Executive and the Board, the Board may hold a referendum.

10.3.1.1.3 If the Board decides to hold a referendum, details of the tentative agreement and a ballot shall be sent to each member of the Group. Ratification shall be achieved when a majority of all members casting ballots vote in favour of ratification.

10.3.1.1.4 If ratification is achieved, the Institute shall sign the collective agreement.

10.3.1.1.5 For Groups not in joint bargaining which do require that ratification of agreements be authorized by the membership, the Board shall ratify the tentative agreement after the Group Executive has reported that a majority of all members casting ballots voted in favour of ratification.

10.3.1.1.6 The Institute shall then sign the collective agreement.

10.3.1.2 Groups in Joint Bargaining

10.3.1.2.1 For Groups in joint bargaining, the following procedures shall apply:

10.3.1.2.2 Once a tentative agreement has been reached by a joint bargaining council, details of the tentative agreement shall be sent to each Group Executive for their recommendation. Group Executive recommendations and details of the tentative agreement shall be included with the ballot to be sent to each member of the participating Groups.

10.3.1.2.3 Ratification shall be achieved when both of the following conditions are met:

- a) A majority of all members casting ballots vote in favour of ratification, and
- b) A majority (as specified in the applicable joint bargaining procedures) of the Groups participating in joint bargaining ratify the tentative agreement.

10.3.1.2.4 A Group shall be considered to have ratified the tentative agreement if a majority of members casting ballots in that Group vote in favour of ratification.

10.3.1.2.5 If ratification is achieved, the Institute shall sign the collective agreement on behalf of all Groups in joint bargaining.

10.3.1.3 Ratification in accordance with these By-Laws shall be binding upon members of the Institute to whom the contract or agreement applies for the term and duration of the contract or agreement.

10.4 ADVISORY COUNCIL

10.4.1 Composition The Advisory Council shall consist of representatives of all Groups, Treasury Board National Departmental Consultation Teams and Consultation Teams from employers with multiple PIPSC bargaining groups. Normally, the appointed representative is the Group or national Consultation Team President. Each Group and Consultation Team shall have only one (1) vote.

AGM 2015

10.4.1.1 Alternates A Group or Consultation Team appointed representative may designate an alternate for the purpose of attending Advisory Council Meetings in the absence of the representative. The alternate must be from the Group Executive or Consultation Team whose representative is unable to attend a meeting. The alternate shall have the right to vote at that meeting; however, a member shall not represent both a Group and a Consultation Team when separate representatives are justified. AGM 2015

10.4.2 Mandate The Advisory Council is charged with the responsibility of dealing with matters referred to it by the Board, the Executive Committee, Group Executives, Consultation Teams or a general meeting of the Institute. It shall serve as a forum for an exchange of ideas and information among Groups and Consultation Teams. Some of the prime functions shall be information sharing on collective bargaining issues, professional concerns, national consultation and policies under consideration. In addition, the Advisory Council shall review PIPSC Annual Priorities and make recommendations to the Board of Directors prior to the second Board of Directors meeting of the calendar year.

AGM 2015

10.4.3 Steering Committee The Advisory Council shall have a Steering Committee comprising the Chair, the Vice-Chair, the AC Director, one (1) representative from each of the three (3) categories of employers elected from amongst Group and Consultation Team representatives employed by each category of employers: one (1) from Treasury Board, one (1) from Federal Government Agencies other than the Treasury Board and one (1) from the separate employers.

AGM 2015

10.4.3.1 Steering Committee Duties The Steering Committee shall be responsible for arranging the agenda and meetings of the Advisory Council, setting goals for the AC, sponsoring Sector Councils brought forward at the AC and making recommendations on those submissions to the Executive Committee via the Finance Committee.

AGM 2006 (e)

10.4.3.2 The Chair calls and presides the Advisory Council and Steering Committee meetings. The Vice-Chair assists the Chair and assumes the Chair's function in the absence of the Chair.

AGM 2015

10.4.3.3 The Chair and AC Director who are involved in presiding over the Advisory Council and Steering Committee meetings may designate a replacement from their Group or Consultation Team to attend the Advisory Council meetings to ensure their Group or Consultation Team is represented at those meetings. This shall in no way remove the status of the Chair or the AC Director as an AC member.

AGM 2017

10.4.4 Elections

10.4.4.1 AC Director Only representatives of the Advisory Council shall be eligible to run for, vote for and hold the position of AC Director. The AC Director shall be elected as provided for in these By-Laws and Regulation. The AC Director shall have the right to vote at AC meetings. AGM 2017

10.4.4.2 AC Steering Committee (Except AC Director) Each year, there shall be an election of Officers of the Advisory Council. The newly-elected Officers shall take office immediately following the meeting at which they were elected. The Chair, the Treasury Board representative and the Federal Government Agencies representative shall normally be elected in even-numbered years. The Vice-Chair and separate employers' representative shall normally be elected in odd-numbered years.

10.4.4.2.1 Notice of the election shall be included with the agenda for the meeting at which the election takes place. Nomination for election is not contingent upon attendance at the meeting, but candidates must indicate, in writing, a willingness to stand for election. AGM 2006 (e)

10.4.4.2.2 The election shall be conducted by members of the Advisory Council who are not a candidate in the election. The election shall be by secret ballot. The candidate who receives the plurality of legal votes shall be deemed elected. Following completion of the election, the ballots shall be destroyed.

AGM 2017

10.4.4.5 Vacancy - AC Steering Committee If a position, other than the position of AC Director, becomes vacant during the term of office, the remaining members of the AC Steering Committee shall act to fill the vacancy until the expiry of the original term of office. If the position of Chair becomes vacant, it shall be filled by the Vice-Chair. If the position of AC Director becomes vacant, it shall be filled as provided for in these By-Laws.

AGM 2015

10.4.5 Reports The AC Director shall, after each Advisory Council and after each AC Steering Committee meeting, submit a report to the Board in a timely manner. The AC Director shall, after each Board of Directors' meeting, submit a written report to the AC Steering Committee and all members of the AC in a timely manner.

AGM 2006 (e)

10.4.6 Sector Council The Advisory Council (AC) Steering Committee shall oversee and monitor all activities pertaining to Sector Councils and shall, through application of the Policy Statement on Sector Councils, make recommendations both to the AC and the Board on such activity. Responsibilities of the AC Steering Committee shall include:

- a) advising the AC on all new Sector Council proposals,
- b) making recommendations to the AC for or against the establishment of new Sector Council and on follow-up activity by previously established Sector Councils,
- c) seeking a decision from the AC to approve or deny permission for the proposal to proceed to the Board of Directors (BOD) for funding, and
- d) providing a recommendation to the BOD regarding Sector Council formation and funding.

AGM 2006 (e)

10.5 Retired Members Guild AGM 2005 (e)

10.5.1 Retired Members Guild There shall be a constituent body consisting of the retired members of the Institute, that shall be responsible for providing Retired and Retiring members with information and advice on retirement related issues, coordinating activities and mobilizing Retired members on retirement issues as required, and dealing with matters referred to it by the Board of Directors.

AGM 2000 (e)

10.5.2 The Retired Members' Guild (RMG) may create constituent bodies know as Chapters in accordance with their constitution. The RMG is responsible for the funding of these Chapters.

AGM 2010 (e)

BY-LAW 11 REGIONS AND REGIONAL STRUCTURES	AGM 1995 (e)
--	---------------------

11.1 Regions

11.1.1 Each Region shall be structured to provide a minimum of three (3) levels of organization, consisting of:

- i) Regional Council
- ii) Regional Executive
- iii) Branches.

11.1.2 A Member may choose to be active in the regional structures where he resides, works or last worked. No member shall have rights in more than one (1) region.

AGM 2015

11.1.3 Participation by other organizational units shall be as defined in the Constitution of each Region.

11.1.4 Each Regional Council shall be free to recommend the detailed organization of the Region, subject to these By-Laws and with the approval of the Board.

11.1.5 Constitution Each Region shall be governed by a Constitution consistent with these By-Laws, providing as a minimum, the representation of Branches or other organizational units in the Regional Council. Each Region shall, upon amendment of its Constitution, submit it to the By-Laws and Policies Committee for review. Any amendments to the Constitution take effect only upon approval by the Board.

11.1.6 Regional Council A Regional Council shall comprise a minimum of one (1) delegate for each two hundred (200) members and a maximum of one (1) delegate for each fifty (50) members resident in the Region rounded to the nearest two hundred (200) plus two (2) additional delegates. The membership count shall be taken as of the previous December 31.

11.1.6.1 A Regional Council shall meet at least once per calendar year.

11.1.7 Regional Executive A Regional Executive shall comprise the elected Director(s) for the Region and additional members up to a maximum of eleven (11). In Regions with more than 10,000 members, the maximum number of executive members may be thirteen (13). Officers shall normally comprise a Chair, Vice-Chair, and a Secretary-Treasurer or, alternatively, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The term of office of an Executive member shall not exceed three (3) years. The results of Executive elections, listing the names, positions, addresses and home and office telephone numbers, shall be forwarded forthwith to the Executive Secretary. AGM 2008

11.2 Branches

11.2.1 Creation The creation of a Branch, comprising ten (10) or more Regular and Retired members from two (2) or more specific Groups in a geographic area, is subject to the approval of the Executive Committee upon application by members of the proposed Branch and recommendation of the Regional Executive concerned. Notwithstanding the preceding, where there are members of only one (1) Group present in a geographic area for which there could otherwise be a Branch, the Regional Executive may recommend the creation of a Branch subject to the approval of the Executive Committee. The appropriate Constitution shall be assigned to a newly created Branch as provided for in these By-Laws. AGM 1997 (e)

11.2.1.1 All members should belong to one Branch and no member shall belong to more than one (1) Branch. AGM 2005 (e)

11.2.2 Constitution Each Branch shall be governed by a Constitution, consistent with these By-Laws and those of the appropriate Region, providing as a minimum, the right of each member to be a candidate for and to vote for the election of Branch Executive members. Each Branch shall, upon amendment of its Constitution, submit it to the By-Laws and Policies Committee and to the appropriate Regional Executive for review. Any amendments to the Constitution take effect only upon approval by the Board and ratification by the Branch membership.

11.2.3 Branch Executive A Branch Executive shall normally consist of up to one (1) Executive member per ten (10) members of the Branch rounded to the nearest ten (10), with a minimum of three (3) and maximum of eleven (11). Officers shall normally comprise a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer or, alternatively, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The term of office of an Executive member shall not exceed three (3) years. The results of Branch elections, listing the names, positions, addresses and home and office telephone numbers, shall be forwarded forthwith to the Executive Secretary. The Executive shall meet at least three times a year. AGM 2008 (e)

11.2.4 Annual General Meeting Each Branch shall convene an Annual General Meeting at least once each calendar year and, in any event, not more than fifteen (15) months from the preceding Annual General Meeting. When a Branch fails to hold an Annual General Meeting, the Executive Secretary shall inform the Branch that it is in contravention of this By-Law, and shall request the Branch take action within thirty (30) days of receipt of such advice. Failure to act on this advice shall result in referral of the matter to the appropriate Regional Executive for recommendation to the Board.

11.2.5 Cause for Dissolution A Branch may be dissolved for failure to comply with its own Constitution, that of the applicable Region or the By-Laws and Regulations of the Institute, subject to the recommendation of the appropriate Regional Executive and approval by the Executive Committee.

BY-LAW 12 STEWARDS

12.1 Definition A Steward shall be an official representative of the Institute when appointed by the Institute. The employer shall be notified of the appointment by the Institute. Only a Regular member may be a Steward.

12.2 Duties and Responsibilities The duties and responsibilities of a Steward shall be as defined in the Regulations.

12.3 Term Stewards shall be appointed for a term as specified in the Regulations.

12.4 Methods of Selection The following methods shall be used to recommend appointments of Stewards by the President:

AGM 2016

12.4.2 By Appointment The authority to appoint a Steward rests exclusively with the President.

AGM 2016

12.4.2.1 Sub-Group, Branch and Regional Executives may recommend Steward appointments to the appropriate Group Executive which, in turn, may recommend the appointment to the President.

12.4.2.2 A Group Executive may recommend Steward appointments to the President.

12.4.3 Board of Directors By virtue of being a Regular Member who is member of the Board.

AGM 2005 (e)

12.5 Re-Appointment of Stewardship The authority to renew a Steward's term rests exclusively with the President. Upon expiry of the term of Stewardship, a Steward may be re-appointed as follows:

AGM 2016

12.5.2 By Renewal Subject to the recommendation of the appropriate Group Executive, by choosing to renew his term of office, unless the member loses an election for the position of Steward.

12.6 Termination of Stewardship A member shall cease to be a Steward for any of the following reasons:

12.6.1 If he ceases to be a Regular member of the Institute.

12.6.2 If notification of his resignation as a Steward is received at the Institute National Office.

12.6.3 If he is not reappointed following expiry of his Stewardship.

12.6.4 Where the member is a Steward only by virtue of serving on the Board, his Stewardship shall end when his term of office expires or when he ceases to be a Regular member.

12.6.5 Allegations of misconduct, as set out in By Law 24, made against a steward shall be dealt with in accordance with the Dispute Resolution and Discipline Policy.

AGM 2017

14.1 FINANCIAL MATTERS - INSTITUTE

14.1.1 New Fiscal Year Effective July 1, 2017, the fiscal year shall run from July 1 to June 30.

AGM 2016

14.1.1.1 Stub Year For the transition period from January 1, 2017 to June 30, 2017, audited financial statements will be presented to the Annual General meeting in 2017. AGM 2016

14.1.2 Auditors' Report The Auditors' report shall be made available to all members each year prior to the date fixed for the Annual General Meeting.

14.1.3 Revenues All monies received by the Institute shall be assigned to the credit of the Institute. All cheques, money orders or other instruments to be paid to the Institute, shall be made payable to the Institute.

14.1.4 Financial Records The Board shall ensure that proper accounting records of financial and other transactions are maintained.

14.1.5 Bank Account(s) Funds required for current, continuing or frequent expenditures shall be maintained in a recognized financial institution account or account(s) as directed by the Board.

14.1.6 Signatures All financial transactions shall require the signatures of any two (2) of the President, Vice-Presidents and Executive Secretary or other person designated from time to time by the Board.

14.1.7 Investments Funds not required for current or continuing expenditures may be invested in securities according to government statutes for non-profit organizations, or in a recognized financial institution account, or both, at the discretion of the Board.

14.1.8 Borrowing The Board may, at its discretion, cause money to be borrowed upon the credit of the Institute.

14.1.9 Budget

14.1.9.1 The proposed budget for the fiscal year next following an Annual General Meeting shall be published sixteen (16) weeks in advance of and submitted to the Annual General Meeting for approval. AGM 2008 (e)

14.1.9.2 A proposed budget shall include a preamble describing the revenues, expenditures and activities of the Institute for the previous fiscal year, the current fiscal year in which the Annual General Meeting is held and the next following fiscal year.

14.1.10 Donations to Political Parties Neither the Institute, nor any of its constituent bodies, shall make donations to any political party in any jurisdiction where the Institute represents members, even though such donations may be permitted by law in such jurisdictions. AGM 2003

14.2 Fees

14.2.1 Notice of Proposed Change in Fees The notice of an Annual or Special General Meeting shall include any proposed change in fees, which may be amended by such meeting.

14.2.2 Fees Fees for each category of membership and for those others for whom the Institute is entitled to receive a dues check-off, shall be determined by the Annual or Special General Meeting and shall take effect upon the date fixed by such meeting.

14.2.2.1 Direct Payment If, for any reason other than as stated in these By-Laws and Regulations, a monthly fee is not paid by deduction from salary, it becomes payable directly to the National Office. When members become personally responsible for the payment of fees, they shall be invoiced for any amount owing.

14.2.2.2 Members shall be informed of the need to voluntarily pay their fees to remain in good standing and of the consequences of not being in good standing.

14.2.3 Supplementary Fee Levy

14.2.3.1 Groups Notwithstanding By-Law 14.2.2, the fees set by an Annual or Special General Meeting need not be identical for each Group. When a Group, by majority decision of that Group, requests that a budgetary item be established for the benefit of that Group, it shall be entitled to request an Annual or Special General Meeting to approve a fee adjustment to enable extra services to be provided to that Group.

14.2.4 Arrears

14.2.4.1 A member who is more than ninety (90) days in arrears in the payment of fees shall be considered to be "not in good standing". Once considered to be "not in good standing", a member may reinstate good standing status by paying the amount owed. AGM 2005 (e)

14.2.4.2 Cause for Termination of Membership Arrears of three (3) months in payment of fees, when such payment is the personal responsibility of a member, may be sufficient cause for termination of membership.

24.3 Procedural Fairness Members subject to potential discipline pursuant to the Dispute Resolution and Discipline Policy will be accorded procedural fairness in the processing of the allegations against them. AGM 2013 (e)

24.4 Where it appears to the Board that a member has done or is about to do an act or thing which would severely and adversely affect the interests or reputation, or restrict activities of the Institute before an alleged misconduct or infraction can be dealt with as provided herein, the Board may temporarily suspend the member concerned from any office and/or position in the Institute. AGM 1998 (e)

24.4.1 It is recognized that the power to impose a temporary suspension in advance of a disciplinary action is an extraordinary one, and must be exercised with great restraint and only in extraordinary circumstances. AGM 2013

24.4.2 Where the matter is the responsibility of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee may exercise the power of the Board set forth in By-Law 24.4. In such cases, the Executive Committee shall present a comprehensive report to the Board within thirty (30) days of the effective date of the suspension, including the allegations and supporting evidence. The Board shall consider this report at its next regular meeting, and may approve, rescind or vary the suspension.

24.4.3 The total duration of a temporary suspension for any single act shall not exceed ninety (90) days. If, by the end of that period, ongoing disciplinary proceedings have not been completed, the suspension shall continue until completion of said proceedings. Any temporary suspension shall cease immediately if it is decided not to proceed with disciplinary action.

24.4.4 A member temporarily suspended shall be informed by the President, in writing, delivered by registered mail or other suitable alternative method, of this action and the reasons therefore. The member retains his full rights with respect to any contemplated disciplinary action.

BY-LAW 25 TRUSTEESHIP	AGM 2014

25.1 Where the Board of Directors has reason to believe that any constituent body is (a) acting contrary to the By-Laws, Regulations or Policies of the Institute; (b) failing to discharge its duties or; (c) engaging in any other conduct that may place the Institute at risk, the Board of Directors shall have the power to investigate the situation in any manner it may duly authorize provided, however, that the bodies and persons being investigated are notified of the board's actions and are given a fair opportunity to present their case.

25.2 Where investigation substantiates the original evidence the Board of Directors shall have the authority to place the constituent body in question under trusteeship. The period of trusteeship may not exceed six (6) months without a review and renewal of the Board's decision.

25.3 A constituent body may remain in trusteeship up to a maximum of twelve (12) months. After this period, an election must be held within thirty (30) days to select a new constituent body executive.

25.4 Where the Board of Directors obtains evidence in accordance with BL 25.1, but believes it is necessary to protect the Institute by imposing trusteeship before an investigation can be undertaken or completed, the Board of Directors shall have the authority to impose a trusteeship, solely on the basis of the evidence presented, for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days.

25.4.1 It is recognized that the power to impose a trusteeship is an extraordinary one, and must be exercised with great restraint and only in extraordinary circumstances.

25.5 The trusteeship may be exercised by any person or body authorized by the Board of Directors.

25.6 A trustee shall have, as directed by the Board of Directors, the full authority to conduct the affairs of the constituent body, to receive or disburse its funds, and in general, and may carry out the duties which would otherwise devolve upon any member of the executive of the constituent body.

25.7 Whenever a trusteeship is imposed, the body placed under trusteeship shall have the right to have the matter placed on the agenda of the next Annual General Meeting.

REGULATION R22 ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF THE INSTITUTE

R22.1 Procedures

R22.1.1 Notice of Election Not less than fourteen (14) weeks prior to the date fixed for election of Officers and Directors, the Institute shall forward to each member entitled to vote for such candidates, a Notice of Election containing a nomination form, details of the positions open, together with formal notification of the date of elections, and the last day for nominations.

BOD August 2012 (e)

R22.1.2 Nominations: Nominations must be in writing, signed by at least one hundred (100) members for candidates for the office of President, fifty (50) for the office of Vice-President, and twenty-five (25) for the position of Regional Director, and contain the consent of the nominees attested to by their signature. Such nominations must be received at the National Office not later than 5.00 p.m. on the day fixed for the close of nominations. Both original nomination and signature forms and those forms scanned and submitted by electronic mail attachments shall be accepted as official nominations. The date fixed for the close of nominations shall be not less than ten (10) weeks before the date fixed for the election. BOD – April 2017

R22.1.3 Biographical Sketches Each candidate for office may submit one (1) written biographical sketch, in either official language or one (1) video biographical sketch in either official language or one (1) bilingual video biographical sketch. A written biographical sketch submitted in English will be of no more than four hundred (400) words whereas a written biographical sketch submitted in French would be of no more than four hundred and fifty (450) words (as determined by the software in use by the Institute at the time). A video biographical sketch will be no more than two (2) minutes in duration. Biographical sketches are to be received at the National Office not later than the date and time fixed for the receipt of nominations. The position sought, name and membership status of the candidate shall precede the written biographical sketch but shall not be included in the word count. Each video biographical sketch shall begin with the name, position sought and membership status of the candidate. All biographical sketches shall adhere to the administrative procedures provided by the Elections Committee. BOD – April 2017

R22.1.4 Ballots

R22.1.4.1 Distribution Not later than twenty-one (21) days before the day fixed for the return of ballots, distribution of ballots, together with the appropriate biographical sketches shall begin to be sent to each member entitled to vote. BOD - June 2014

R22.1.4.2 Validity Only ballots returned in the manner specified by Elections Committee and received by the Executive Secretary by the date and time specified by the Board in the Notice of Election shall be considered valid.

R22.1.5 Processing of Results

R22.1.5.1 Observers A candidate or his representative may observe the processing of results. BOD 2008 (e)

R22.1.5.2 Ranking In Elections involving candidates for multiple terms of office, the candidates shall be ranked in order of the number of votes received. Notwithstanding the requirements of By-Law 22.3.1, the successful candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed elected to the longest term of office and the successful candidates with a lesser number of votes shall be deemed to have been elected to a shorter term of office. BOD – May 2015

R22.1.5.3 Results Candidates will be advised of the results of the election on completion of the processing of results. The results of the election shall be reported to the membership. BOD 2008 (e)

R22.1.5.4 Request for Verification of Results Candidates declared unsuccessful who wish a verification of the results must submit a formal request to the Executive Secretary within five (5) working days from the date the candidate is notified of the results of the election. A recount would only apply to paper ballots and only if the number of paper ballots exceeds the margin of victory. A verification of the logs can be done with candidates present. BOD – May 2015

R22.1.5.5 Destruction of Ballots and Electronic Records Save in exceptional circumstances, the Board shall, at its first meeting following completion of all verification of results and appeal procedures, direct the destruction of the ballots and all associated electronic records. BOD 2008 (e)

R22.2.1 A member employed in a particular Region shall be eligible to stand for election as a Director to another Region if he satisfies the Elections Committee that he shall be employed in the other Region by January first (1st) of the following year.

R22.2.1.1 A Director who is temporarily employed for a period of not more than six (6) months outside the Region from which he was elected, shall not be subject to the foregoing conditions.

R22.2.1.2 If, between the close of nominations and the processing of results, a candidate for Director becomes aware that he shall not be employed in the Region which he seeks to represent, he shall immediately inform the Elections Committee and shall withdraw his candidacy. BOD 2008 (e)

R22.4.1 “Do Not Contact” List The Institute will create and maintain a “do not contact” list of member email addresses. Any member unwilling to receive election campaign material at a specific email address(es) shall notify the Executive Secretary. Candidates and those acting on behalf of a candidate shall not send election material to any email address contained on the “do not contact” list. BOD - 2007 (e)

R22.4.2 Institute Facilities and Resources Except as hereinafter specifically provided or approved by the Elections Committee, neither candidates for Institute office nor those acting on behalf of a candidate nor other members involved in election activities, may use Institute funds, resources, facilities, letterhead or logo on behalf of the candidates. Neither candidates nor those acting on behalf of a candidate may in any way suggest the preference or support any Institute body, the Institute as a corporate body or its employees for any candidate. BOD – May 2015

R22.4.2.1 Accepted Uses The following are accepted uses of Institute Resources:

- a) Presidential and Vice-Presidential speeches at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Institute as specified in the procedures provided by the Elections Committee; BOD – May 2015
