

What can your steward do for you?

Your steward is a fellow PIPSC member working for you!

Stewards fight for what is right.

Making sure you are treated fairly and working in a healthy environment.

Stewards represent your interests.

Informing you of your rights and handling your grievances.

Stewards keep you informed.

Advising you on policies and issues that affect your livelihood and well-being and informing you of programs and services available to you through PIPSC.

Your PIPSC Steward: your first line of defence!
